

InterFinanz successfully advised on the sale of 100% of the shares of BÖCO Böddecker & Co. GmbH & Co. KG, Wuppertal, Germany including its real estate company to Magna International Inc., Aurora, Canada

September 28th, 2016

The listed automotive supplier Magna International Inc. announced on September 26th, 2016 the acquisition of the German Tier 1 supplier BÖCO.

BÖCO is a leading automotive supplier and specialist in innovative latching and closing systems with two production sites in Wuppertal (Germany) and Tianjin (China). For more than 60 years, BÖCO has been a supplier to renowned OEMs such as BMW, Daimler and Audi and currently generates an annual turnover of more than € 100 m.

Due to long-time expertise in the automotive industry and global footprint for SMEs, InterFinanz was mandated by the BÖCO shareholder as the exclusive M&A advisor.

InterFinanz organized the sale process as limited international auction and steered the negotiations with numerous parties, targeting at the optimization of purchase price and conditions.

The transaction was supported by legal firm Kümmerlein, Essen, and accounting firm Trost Rudoba & Partner, Wuppertal.
