

Steadfast Capital acquires G&D in a Management Buy-out

August 1st, 2016

Steadfast Capital Fund III, L.P. acquired 100% of the shares of Guntermann & Drunck GmbH Systemtechnik in Wilnsdorf, Germany, in a management buy-out (MBO) led by CEO Roland Ollek.

Founded in 1985, Guntermann & Drunck (G&D) is a leading supplier of KVM-products (Keyboard-Video-Mouse). G&D's KVM solutions extend and switch analog and digital computer signals for control room applications in the four focal areas broadcast, industrial, air traffic and maritime thus enabling central management of various computers.

According to CEO Roland Ollek "Steadfast Capital is the perfect partner for the expansion in the Americas and Asia as well as the exploration of new fields of applications and customer segments".

Steadfast Capital specializes in MBOs in the context of corporate succession in the German-speaking region and BeNeLux. Of particular interest are companies that can be supported in their growth story, especially when expanding abroad.

InterFinanz acted as exclusive advisor to the seller in an international bidding process supported by the Global M&A Partners offices worldwide.
