

CRH Group sells Reuss-Seifert and Hammerl to AURELIUS

November 23th, 2015

In the context of its portfolio optimization strategy, CRH Group divested all business activities of its German subsidiaries Reuss-Seifert GmbH and Hammerl GmbH to AURELIUS AG.

With its six production facilities, Reuss-Seifert & Hammerl Group is one of the leading European producers of spacers made of plastic, steel, and concrete as well as construction films and other consumables for the concrete processing industry. In 2014, the group had 300 employees generating around € 60 million in sales.

Reuss-Seifert & Hammerl Group (RSH) represents an attractive new platform for AURELIUS' Mid-Cap portfolio. RSH's well-diversified product portfolio is a good basis for further penetrating existing markets and expediting its international expansion. This transaction ensures that CRH Group retains an important supplier to its remaining portfolio companies.

InterFinanz organized the international sales process and acted as exclusive M&A advisor to CRH Deutschland GmbH.
