

Bemsiq acquires S+S Regeltechnik

October 22, 2019

Swedish Bemsiq AB, a subsidiary of Investment AB Latour, signed a contract to acquire S+S Regeltechnik GmbH, a company based in Nuremberg, Bavaria. Subject to customary approvals the closing of the transaction is expected in January 2020.

S+S Regeltechnik is a pan-European leader in manufacturing sensor technology for measurement and control in building automation and mechanical engineering. Among the most important products are room control units, temperature, pressure and humidity sensors, thermostats as well as light intensity and motion detectors. In 2018, S+S achieved annual sales of € 16.3m with a staff of 65 people.

Mikael J. Albrektsson, CEO for Bemsiq, stated that the acquisition is an important step in the company's ambition to grow on the international market for building automation and creates a strong presence in Germany.

Tino Schulze, CEO and former owner of S+S sees Bemsiq as a very good long-term owner of S+S and looks forward to further develop and grow S+S alongside the other companies in the Bemsiq group. This acquisition opens new growth and development possibilities for both, the buyer as well as the acquired company.

InterFinanz exclusively advised the buyer in the acquisition process.
